

Up on the Report of Mr. Robert Linsley and Mr. Deane and company surveyors of the tract of land called the great pasture or Henderson patent of August 1749 and signed Henry and the said James Deane November 23 following according to the above survey in which I have agreed to give John Deane of the said land and form of the boundaries the same as the surveyors did the year 1749 and the said land to be divided into a plantation of the same.

at the end of the 1st survey	at the end of the 2nd survey	at the end of the 3rd survey	at the end of the 4th survey	at the end of the 5th survey	at the end of the 6th survey	at the end of the 7th survey	at the end of the 8th survey	at the end of the 9th survey	at the end of the 10th survey	at the end of the 11th survey	at the end of the 12th survey	at the end of the 13th survey	at the end of the 14th survey	at the end of the 15th survey	at the end of the 16th survey	at the end of the 17th survey	at the end of the 18th survey	at the end of the 19th survey	at the end of the 20th survey
1749	1750	1751	1752	1753	1754	1755	1756	1757	1758	1759	1760	1761	1762	1763	1764	1765	1766	1767	1768
1749	1750	1751	1752	1753	1754	1755	1756	1757	1758	1759	1760	1761	1762	1763	1764	1765	1766	1767	1768
1749	1750	1751	1752	1753	1754	1755	1756	1757	1758	1759	1760	1761	1762	1763	1764	1765	1766	1767	1768

Map of Henderson Patent
 Copied from original parchment map in the office of Byron L. Dwyer, Surveyor for the Conservation Dept.
 Div. of Lands and Forests
 by R. W. Williams
 Dec. 2, 1917

The following appears on the back of Original Note: The S and O difficult to distinguish between

John Leander
 Woodley Survey